Kingston CCG Draft Commissioning Intentions 2014/15

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Kingston CCG's Draft Commissioning Intentions 2014/15 document describes the planning environment for the CCG along with the CCG's principles, strategic priorities, drivers for change and enablers. It outlines the direction of travel in each of the CCG's 6 strategic workstreams and describes specific commissioning intentions for 2014/15 in each. It then outlines requirements in 2014/15 in a number of other areas of the CCG's commissioning responsibility.

There has been wide engagement in the development of these Draft Commissioning Intentions, and the expectation is that there will be continuing discussion and iteration of these plans with stakeholders, which will also be informed by emerging national planning guidance and details of resource allocations.

KEY SECTIONS FOR PARTICULAR NOTE:

The whole document.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

It is recommended that the Governing Body approve these Draft Commissioning Intentions for 2014/15 subject to expected relevant national guidance and continued discussion with stakeholders.

RISKS IDENTIFIED:

- Rising health and social care needs and costs associated with demographic change are identified as a major pressure in the local health and social care system. 'More of the same' is not an affordable or sustainable response – a programme of transformational change is required.
- Establishment of the Integration Transformation Fund represents a new challenge to the health and social care system which only an integrated, whole-system response will be able to address.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

Despite the commissioning pressures, the local health and social care system as a whole must work within the funding allocations available, and these commissioning intentions and subsequent strategic and operational plans will provide the framework to do so.
